DEDICATION

When we consider the many things he has done for us and school, there seems to be no words we can say that will express our gratefulness to the man who has helped to make this school into the place we all love, and has made this, our yearbook, the INTERMONT, a true pictorial representation of our years at V. I. He has given unselfishly and patiently of his time and energy, even to depriving himself of many enjoyable evenings at home with his family, while he took, developed, and printed the majority of the pictures in this annual. In appreciation of this, and the numerous other things he has done for us, we dedicate this annual to the one man who really deserves it—Mr. S. O. Snodgrass, our own Business Manager, Photographer, and friend.

MR. S. O. SNODGRASS

This is Jean—or Joan—or whatever you want to call her. She stands as a caricature of the average college girl. Her activities are as varied as our own and as such, are very familiar to all of us. To other people though, she is an unusual thing, with unusual actions and habits, just as the typical college girl always is to people out of school. However she appears to others though, we hope that to you she will appear as a guide to and illustration of your own college daze.

who taught us

Dr. Rabun Lee Brantley
President

The mainstay and guiding light of Virginia Intermont and its students is Dr. Brantley, our president and true friend. By appearances in chapel, vespers, and in personal interviews, he has proved his awareness of each problem and situation and his sincere desire to help us.

Dr. Brantley has shared with Intermont the depth of his wealth of knowledge through scholastic education and wide travels. An important member of several scholastic associations, he served as president of the Southern Association of Junior Colleges in 1947, and in 1948 he held the presidency of the Southern Association of Colleges for Women.

At Mercer University, Dr. Brantley was granted his B.A. and M.A. degrees, and at George Peabody College he received his Ph.D. At Mary Hardin-Baylor College he served as professor of English and Journalism, and at Bessie Tift College he was treasurer and head of the English and Journalism Departments. He also held the position of dean and professor of English at the University System of Georgia Evening Colleges and was for two years editor of the Southern Automotive Journal.

Miss Marguerite Pflug
Dean of Faculty

A quiet, gentle manner and graceful charm are attributes possessed by Miss Pflug, Virginia Intermont's academic dean. It is to her that we turn to seek guidance in planning our studies and scholastic futures.

Miss Pflug's wide experiences abroad enable her to excel as a French and German teacher. After her preparatory work which was done in Austria, Germany, and Switzerland, Miss Pflug studied at the University of Berlin and the University of Geneva. Then, upon her arrival in the United States, she received her Ph.D. degree from John B. Stetson University, and her A.M. degree from Columbia University.

Administration

MISS PAULINE GRAVLEE

Dean of Women

Miss Gravlee, who has won the hearts of all her girls, commands the respect and admiration due her for outstanding consideration for others and sincerity of purpose. Her fresh, sparkling humor keeps us striving to carry out her well-phrased requests, and forget the "don'ts" of our society.

A native of Alabama, Miss Gravlee received her B.A. degree from Howard College, Birmingham, Alabama, where she served the following year as secretary to the Counseling Service, and as part-time psychology instructor. She next became psychology teacher at Mary Hardin-Baylor College, Belton, Texas. Then she acquired her M.A. degree in psychology from George Peabody College in Nashville, where she was awarded an A.A.U.W. Fellowship and also a Graduate Assistantship, working with the Director of Student Life and Resident Halls.

MRS. E. L. SEAY

Assistant Dean of Women

Truly a perfect southern lady, "Mumsie" personifies every standard of ideal womanhood, the supreme goal for each of her Intermont girls who dearly loves her. Mrs. Seay's vitality and youthful spirit make her a popular member of any group while she instills in us a cultural heritage of which to be proud.

PERPETUAL DATE BOOK

Administration

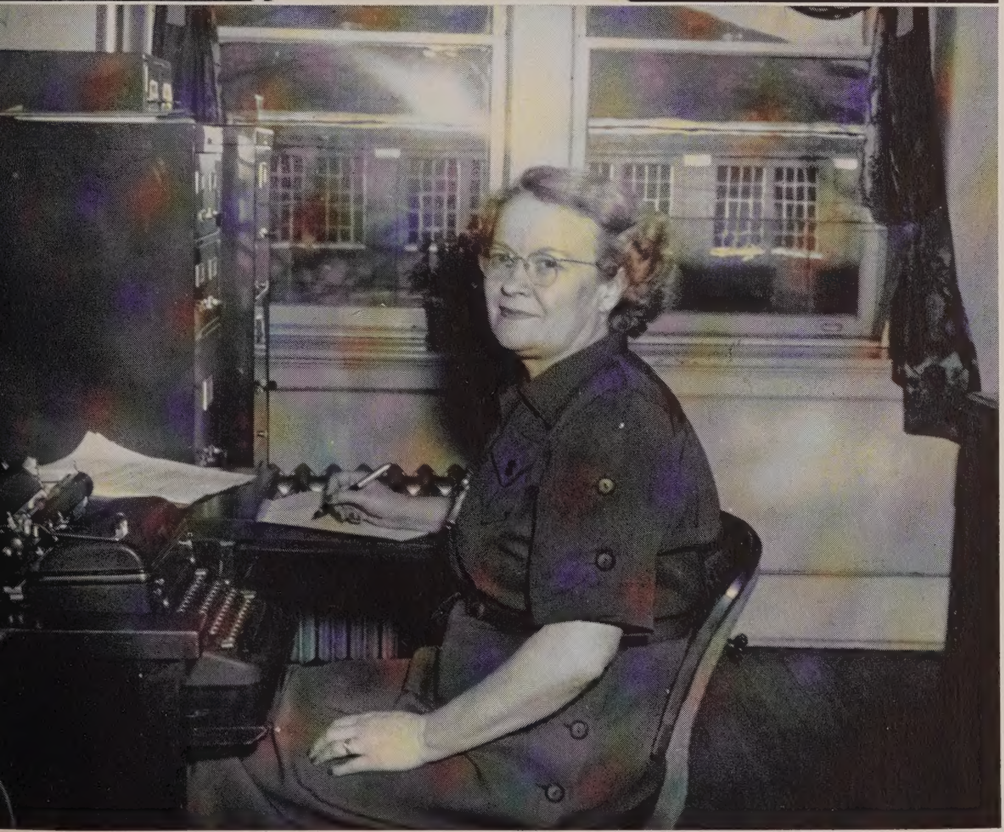
MR. S. O. SNODGRASS

Business Manager

As Business Manager, Mr. Snodgrass is V. I.'s dollar sign. His time is always available for counseling.

Probably more familiar to all is the little man behind the big camera, as Mr. Snodgrass calls for the poses for the pictures which have added so much to the picture history of our days at Intermont.

Mr. Snodgrass received his A.B. degree from Emory and Henry College, has taught in Liberty Hall, Virginia, High School, and was principal of Barrack, Virginia, High School.



MRS. W. E. CROCKETT

Director of Public Relations

Happy, busy, energetic, and constructive describe Mrs. Crockett, who capably manages to get and keep Virginia Intermont in the public view.

Mrs. Crockett began her work at Virginia Intermont in 1946 as Alumnae Secretary and Director of Public Relations, in which positions she makes personal contacts with prospective students, organizes alumnae chapters, and supervises programs for civic clubs in the surrounding area.

Mrs. Miller is an enthusiastic representative of V. I. to girls in nearby communities. Her unselfishness and captivating charm will undoubtedly interest many girls in choosing V. I.

Sweet, considerate, and understanding is Mrs. James Turner.

Mrs. Craft is truly interested in all her girls, who love and appreciate her kindness and thoughtfulness toward them.

How could we exist but for Mrs. Fritche's book store where we obtain our books and school supplies as well as all the attractive V. I. articles?

Dear to all is Mrs. Hammer, a thoughtful and considerate house-mother.

Everyone respects Mrs. Harper, who manages the "T-Hole" without which we feel we could not exist.

Mrs. Mansfield is our efficient supervisor of the buildings. Her jolly nature and thoughtfulness are cherished by all.

Miss Noble, V. I.'s able dietician, keeps us healthy and well fed.

"Mom Painter" is the sweet, demure housemother loved by all the girls.

Mr. Roberts, V. I.'s right hand, is truly a talented craftsman. His works are evident all over the campus.

Friendly, patient Mrs. Sheppard treats our ailments and helps in every way.

Senior Hall is very proud of their "Mom Taylor" whose good nature endears her to all.

"Mama T" will always be remembered fondly by her girls on third floor.

SENIOR

September 13, 1951, was truly a great day for the Class of '52, for it was on that day that its members came back to V.I. after the leisurely summer months. The halls rang with cries of "Roomie" as reunion after happy reunion took place, and all-night gab sessions were no rarity as every girl found it necessary to tell of and listen to what had happened during the summer. The YWCA Little Pal party on September 15 helped us all to get better acquainted with our "Little Sisters" and gave us a glimpse of all the talented members of the Junior Class.

Then we settled down to business. Class officers were elected—Marlene Bolling, president; Jean Robison, vice-president; Tally Gwaltney, secretary; Mase Chapin, treasurer. With such girls as officers and with Mr. Harold Ayers as our sponsor, we could see that our last year at V.I. would be a wonderful one.

Charm Week was in October, and the Seniors were elated when Irene Baeumert, a Senior from Germany, was elected Miss Charming of 1951. Another memorable event of October was Rat Day, during which Superior Seniors really had opportunity to lord it over the Lowly Juniors, who were wonderful sports about the whole thing.

With November came hockey, and the class games were the scene of thrilling action on the part of the players and excited cheering on the part of the spectators. The Seniors were victorious in this tournament.

CLASS HISTORY

Another competition, one of the most spirited of the year, also took place in November—the Song Contest. Each class wrote its own proclamation and pep songs and practiced them for weeks. Nightly we trudged to the Hut, where Betty Shaw, our Song Leader, drilled us over and over again, constantly striving for perfection. On the night of November 17, we filed silently into the gym. The classes eloquently sang of the glory of V.I. in their proclamation songs, and revealed their fervent class spirit through their pep songs. We were heartbroken when Mr. Snodgrass announced that the Juniors had won, but at the same time we were proud of our "Little Sisters," for their victory in this showed how well they worked together and gave indication of what they are capable of in the future.

On December 15 we left V.I. for the Christmas holidays. These holidays sped by, and it seemed hardly any time until we were back at school again, with every girl trying to tell of her wonderful holidays at once.

The volleyball tournament, which was marked by keen competition, was in January. The Seniors fought hard and were again victors.

Exam week came and went, and before we knew it, February was with us. Once again the three classes vied for honor, this time in the basketball realm. The day of the Junior-Senior game was also the day of the Effigy Hunt, and the Juniors garbed themselves in old clothes and searched every conceivable place for the precious effigy which the Seniors had hidden. We jumped every time the chimes sounded. fearing that it was the signal that the doll had been found. That night, the gym echoed to the shouts of Juniors and Seniors cheering their teams, and after a thrill-packed game the Seniors emerged as basketball champions of V.I.

March brought the softball and more class games. March 31 was the date of the Junior-Senior banquet. The Juniors provided a really wonderful evening for their big sister class. But all the fun was tinged with sadness, for the banquet served as a reminder that the Class of '52 wouldn't be together much longer.

April was a relatively peaceful month, broken only by the Easter holidays. May was a never-to-be-forgotten month, for it marked the end of our life at V.I. Our commencement festivities began on Thursday, May 22, with the annual horse show, which was indeed colorful. That night both High School and College took part in the beautiful Torchlight ceremonies on the front campus. This was really a tearful occasion, for it emphatically brought home to us the fact that our V.I. days as students were ending forever. Friday was a happier time, though—it was May Day, and Mase Chapin reigned as queen over her court of Senior beauties. That night and the next, the Dramatics Department presented the commencement play, which was one of the best we had seen all year. Saturday morning we had our Senior breakfast, and Sunday morning we had our baccalaureate service at the First Baptist Church. Sunday evening saw the last vesper service of the year, of which the Senior class had charge. And then came Monday morning, the morning of our graduation. With a combination of emotions in our hearts, we donned our caps and gowns and prepared to march down the hollow to receive our diplomas. Some of us were ending our college days, others were planning to go on to school; but all of us felt that we were leaving some of our happiest years behind us at the beloved school among the mountains.

JUNIOR CLASS

OFFICERS

President	Pat Spaulding
Vice-President	Barbara Critselous
Secretary	Peggy Miller
Treasurer	Susan Druley

During its first week at Intermont the junior class paved its way to success by electing Dr. Jim Turner its class advisor.

The rat day's ordeal was taken into our stride and we looked forward to the inter-class sports in which we could show the same good spirit we had shown on rat day.

This year the juniors won the song contest, one of the most outstanding events of the year. We'll never forget the long hours of work or the wonderful feeling that came over us when we were announced victorious.

The high spirited class of '53 showed its good sportsmanship throughout the year—the hockey game . . . the volleyball game . . . the Junior-Senior basketball game and the effigy hunt.

We shall always remember the fun we had together as Juniors at Virginia Intermont College.

THE HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS HISTORY

The music of "Pomp and Circumstance" filled the air as the proud High School seniors marched down the aisle. This was the day we had dreamed of for two years; but then the white robes seemed to fade into a mist and the music became softer and softer; and suddenly a new melody could be heard, "Nil Sine Numine"; the song contest had left its indelible mark on the hearts of each and every one of us—the hockey, volleyball, basketball, and baseball games at which the incorrigible spirit of the "Blue and White" was always shown, and the parties and pranks for which the High School is known; all brought to a climax by the junior-senior banquet, the gala occasion of the year; and High School Day, the day we got up at five in the morning, wore jeans to class and paraded about in the manner ever familiar to anyone in the High School. But inevitable sadness found its way into our hearts at Torchlight for we knew that this was the last time we would sing to the "Hallowed Halls" of V. I. The music began to get louder again; that feeling of pride returned; we knew that the memory of two wonderful years would remain with us forever.

Hail to thee, our Alma Mater
Laud and praise we sing to thee!

Nil sine numine, nothing without guidance
Nil sine numine, nothing without guidance.

Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Laud and praise we sing to thee
All thy daughters adore thee
All thy daughters adore thee.

Lamp for light and star so bright,
Lead us onward through the night;
Book of knowledge and the key
This our seal of V. I. C.

Hail to thee our Alma Mater
Laud and praise we sing to thee,
All thy daughters adore thee
All thy daughters adore thee.

ART

The Intermont Art Department includes a variety of courses to suit almost every individual talent. Under the direction of Miss Ruby Ball, the department head, art majors may receive a foundation for entering any field of commercial art.

The courses for an art major include Drawing and Painting, Art Appreciation, Art Structure, Commercial Art and Introduction to Art during the first year. In the second year, Advanced Drawing and Painting is included. Applied Art and Home Economics Art are offered for specialization.

Jackie's illustrations fascinate even Miss Fairfield.

ART CLUB

The Art Club is composed of all students on campus who have interest in any phase of painting, whether they apply their interest, or just study it. This year the club has gone on several field trips and sponsored a number of one-man shows on the campus. They also gave an informal party and had an exhibition of the work of the members.

Mr. C. Ernest Cooke instructs a course in the History of Art. Every Sunday evening Mr. Cooke meets with an Art Interest Group at his home to further students' appreciation of art.

During the year several field trips are taken by the majors. Students and faculty exhibit their works of art annually and the regional art exhibit is also held here. At graduation, an Intermont art major is thoroughly qualified to enter any art school of her choice.

DRAMA

Make-up is an art!

During the 1951-1952 session at Intermont, Mr. C. Mack Statham, head of the Drama Department, worked with two senior and six junior drama majors, as well as many elective students, to produce three three-act plays and eight one-act plays. Two of the one-act plays, "Undertow" and "From Five to Five-thirty," were directed by this year's senior majors. In addition to its regular program, the department also sponsors a recital by the senior majors in the spring.

DEPARTMENT

Intermont's Drama Department offers one of the finest and most complete courses in this section of the country. A major in drama at Intermont will take 42 semester hours of acting, speech, history of the theatre, stagecraft, radio, directing, and play production.

Students in the department have opportunities to attend other productions given by colleges in this area and also attend Barter Theater, the state theater of Virginia.

The two organizations on the campus for students of drama are the Curry Club, to which all drama students belong, and Delta Psi Omega, the National Honorary Fraternity, for outstanding students in the department.

After-play parties are exciting affairs.

Bet gets her evening dress fitted.

A major in the Home Economics Department is offered a wide variety of courses which are interesting and helpful in preparing a girl for a career in the home or business world of Home Economics.

Nutrition and Foods, Textiles and Clothing, and Home Management are the classifications under which the courses are listed. These include work in canning, meal planning and preparation, etiquette, child care, selection of clothing, and history of fabrics.

During the year classes make visits to stores and plants in the surrounding area to add interest to the course and to aid the student in practical application of the information learned in the classroom lectures.

Luncheons, teas, and fashion shows are given by students under the direction of Miss Miller and Mrs. Cantwell to encourage better work and to recognize achievement. The Home Economics Club gives girls ample opportunity to practice what they have learned while having fun at the same time.

SECRETARIAL SCIENCE

Keep those typewriter bells ringing!

V. I.'s excellent Secretarial Science Department is fully equipped to prepare secretarial majors for the business world, with its standard courses in shorthand and typing. Academic courses are also included to give the student the background which a well-rounded, efficient business woman needs.

The department head is Mr. Harold E. Ayers, teacher of Economics and Accounting. Shorthand and Typing are taught by Miss Mary Lou Smith and Miss Margaret Stewart respectively. In the latter courses students strive to attain a high degree of accuracy and speed.

A secretarial major upon graduation from V. I. may obtain a position in a business office as a clerk, typist, stenographer, or secretary.

Merchandising helps our preparation for the business world.

EQUITATION

A lesson in the ring.

All lined up, ready to go.

Off for an outing in the hills.

Virginia Intermont's modern stable and fine horses help make horseback riding one of the favorite sports on the campus. Students meet in classes twice a week. The horses are suitable for teaching beginning riders, as well as the more experienced ones.

The riding classes include lectures on the body of the horse and the necessary equipment, correct riding habits, mounting and dismounting, and actual riding to enable students to put into practice what they have learned in theory classes.

One of the big campus events is the Horse Show given annually by the classes. Prizes are awarded to the outstanding students in the Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced classes. The Equitation instructor is Mrs. Elsie Edwards.

The Boots and Saddle Club is composed of the members of the equitation classes, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Edwards. Members heartily join in many activities on the campus, among which are the rides to the farm to cook supper, joint rides with Sullins College, and parties in the Boots and Saddle comfortable meeting rooms.

The main purposes of the club are to increase interest in riding and to better the horsemanship of the equitation students, as well as to provide an interest group for fellow horse lovers.

V. I. is well-known for its outstanding Music Department and last year was admitted to associate membership in the National Association of Schools of Music. This is the highest recognition in the field of music which a college can receive.

The department courses include Music Theory, Introduction to Music (for majors), History of Music, Music Appreciation (for non-majors), Piano Ensemble, and Orchestra. Students may take private lessons in voice, piano, organ, and violin.

Mr. Ralph Osthoff is the head of the department and teacher of piano. Miss Frances Eller teaches organ and piano. Miss Genevieve Shanklin teaches Violin and Theory.

A music major graduate may apply for a teacher's certificate, plan a career in radio, or become a professional musician. Every year the Department of Music offers scholarships to high school graduates who are outstanding in the field of music.

DEPARTMENT

Glee Club membership is required of all voice majors, and students with ability are asked to join after try-outs in the fall. It is under the direction of Mr. John Park. The fame of the Virginia Intermont Glee Club has become widespread because of frequent concert tours.

Student recitals are given every month, and graduation recitals are given by senior majors. The girls at Intermont have splendid opportunities to hear good music at these recitals given by the students and faculty of the department.

EDUCATION

To those girls planning to major in Physical Education, the V. I. Department offers the best of courses in this field. The first two years are similar to a prenursing course plus Physical Education Theory, which consists of the rules and regulations of all sports. A major in this field is prepared to teach in any high school or college with a Physical Education Department and is also qualified to teach Health, Hygiene, and First Aid. Frequently girls taking this course can obtain summer jobs with camps which welcome physical education majors. No girl should plan to take this course unless she is physically able to take part in all sports and has a genuine love of indoor and outdoor games.

The department is under the direction of Miss Gale Keezel. Mrs. Elsie Edwards teaches Equitation, and Miss Barbara Rouse is the swimming instructor and dance teacher.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

High school anatomy.

Virginia Intermont is one of the few colleges which is fully equipped to offer an extensive chemistry course. Students interested in chemistry are offered General Chemistry, Qualitative Analysis, and high school Chemistry.

What do you see, girls?

Nancy demonstrates a principle in physics.

The head of the department is Dr. S. J. Marion, teacher of the college courses. Mr. Samuel Edmondson teaches the high school courses. The Bio-Chem Club members are students in the chemistry and biology classes.

An intensive and very interesting Physics course is offered at V. I. and taught by Miss Marion Clark. In this course students learn the fundamentals of Physics and, on the practical side, how new scientific developments are constructed and their various uses. The Math-Physics Club is composed of students majoring in either of these two sciences.

The greatly expanded General Biology Course, taught by Mrs. Cox, includes Botany, Zoology, Bacteriology, and Physiology.

The pre-liberal arts course offered by Virginia Intermont College gives its students a firm foundation in a wide variety of subjects and enables those students who have maintained a high average to enter four-year colleges and universities. These transfer girls must take the maximum number of courses required for the usual liberal arts degree.

The courses included in departmental work at Intermont are English V and VI, History, Bible, sociology, psychology, and foreign languages—Spanish, German, and French. With courses chosen from these with additional science, mathematics, and electives, a girl acquires the necessary 32 session hours and 32 quality credits required for graduation from Intermont.

DANCE DEPARTMENT

Tap dancing is a hearty exercise.

A course in ballroom dancing is a social asset.

The Dance Department at Virginia Intermont offers modern dance and ballet instruction with classes for the advanced, intermediate, and beginning student. In these classes students learn to perfect the traditional forms of the dance and to express themselves in the art of performing their own original dances.

During the year, various Bristol organizations use the talent of the Dance Department for shows. Work shops illustrating the choreography of the students are presented throughout the year by the combined classes. The department is under the direction of Miss Rouse.

Modern Dance Students strive to attain membership in Junior Orchesis, the junior branch of the national organization, Senior Orchesis. This is the highest award a modern dance student may attain. Members are selected from among the students in the modern dance classes by Miss Rouse, sponsor of the club, and by members of the previous years on the basis of their ability in choreography. After a period of pledging, the prospective members are then initiated. Junior Orchesis was founded at Virginia Intermont in 1945 by Mrs. George McIntyre.

Student Government

All students are members of the Student Government Association. The Student Council represents the entire student body and tries to impress upon every student that she is a member of the organization. The Student Council has three major purposes—to represent the best interests of the student body; to secure co-operation among the different organizations at Intermont; and to promote responsibility, self-reliance, and loyalty on the part of the students.

The Student Council sponsors many activities during the year including the Student Government Formal.

Y. W. C. A.

The Y.W.C.A. is one of the oldest, most active, and well-rounded organizations on the campus. Since the membership fee is included in tuition, each student automatically becomes a member of the organization upon enrolling at V. I. The members regularly supervise the recreation of the children at the Janie Hammit Home. The proceeds from the annual Harvest Carnival are contributed to the Home, and every girl has a chance to act as "Santa Claus" to one of the children at the Y.W.C.A. Christmas party. This organization plays an important part in the campus social activities which include teas, parties, and Peanut Week. Miss Ada Strong is the sponsor.

Y. W. A.

The Y.W.A. is composed of all girls from every denomination on our campus. The Young Woman's Auxiliary of the Missionary Organization carries on a full program throughout the school year.

Membership to Y.W.A. is included in each girl's tuition, and she is introduced to its purposes in early fall in order to explain Y.W.A. to these new members.

The main projects of Y.W.A. are the mission offerings, gift boxes, and visits to the Janie Hammit and Katie Lockett Homes.

The functioning body of Y.W.A. is its council composed of representatives from each denomination.

Baptist students enrolled at V. I. make up the membership of the B.S.U., which is the connecting link between the school and the Baptist Church. In order to promote the spiritual development of its members, the B.S.U. encourages church membership and co-operates with religious activities on the campus as well as in the local church. The B.S.U. sponsors Vocational Guidance Week and helps to sponsor Religious Emphasis Week and "Join the Church Day."

The sponsor of the B.S.U. is Mrs. D. H. Willet.

WESLEY FOUNDATION

The Wesley Foundation, composed of Methodist girls, forms the largest denominational group on the Intermont Campus. This club seeks to affiliate its members with activities in the local churches through participation in services.

The major project of the club is its welfare work in Bristol. Social functions include parties, teas, and outings. Miss Gale Keezel is the sponsor.

WESTMINSTER CLUB

The Presbyterian girls on the campus form the Westminster Club. The club serves as a connecting link between the home church and the local church, and its members take part in chapel and vesper programs during the year here.

The Westminster Club actively participates in the Westminster Fellowship at the local Presbyterian churches.

Alpha Beta chapter of Phi Beta, national professional music fraternity, was founded on our campus in 1939. Membership in Phi Beta is invitational by its active members to girls showing musical ability and leadership after an audition of those girls recommended by the music faculty.

Phi Beta has always encouraged fine scholarship, performance and service to their fellow students and to the college. Mr. Ralph Osthoff is the very capable sponsor of this fraternity.

The Nostrae Filiae Club, organized in March, 1947, is the link between the present students and the alumnae. The club has sponsored many activities and outings.

Several of the members are daughters and granddaughters of alumnae. Mrs. Crockett, alumnae secretary, sponsors our club here at Virginia Intermont.

The motto of the club is "I pledge my head to clearer thinking, my heart to greater loyalty, my hands to larger service, my health to better living, for my club, my community, and my country."

The first dance of the year was given by the Areanne Club.

AREANNE CLUB

The Areanne Club is composed of girls who live in the Bristol area and attend Virginia Intermont as day students. This organization has more members this year than ever before in the history of the school. The day students have a lot of good times together and perform many useful services throughout the school year. One of the highlights of the year was the Day Student Formal held on September 29. This was one of the best dances of the year. The sponsors of this active campus organization are Mrs. Crockett and Mrs. Hammer.

Life at College

was never dull

DEAR DIARY

The "So this is Intermont" program gave us an idea of the year to come.

The new teachers greeted us.

INFORMATION
BOOTH

Orientation Week opened the year.

September

Dear Diary,

September rolled around mighty soon, it seems, this year, and before I knew it, the hills of Virginia were calling to me once again.

You can't imagine, Diary, how much screaming was done when the old girls saw each other. After the first loud greetings were over, we set to work right away, demonstrating to the new girls this thing called the "Intermont Spirit." We staged a "So This Is Intermont" pantomime, showing the life that goes on in a small college. Then the Little Pal Party—with its entertainment and refreshments—made all of us realize the wonderful feeling of friendship that exists here.

Oh, Diary, September here at V. I. was just packed. We "showed off" to Bristolians the first Sunday by attending the First Baptist Church in a body. Characteristic of September was the informality and friendliness displayed by everyone. Picnics were the vogue. The outstanding one was the lawn supper given by the Y.W.A. on the side lawn. Yes, Diary, I actually ate five hotdogs and four ice creams!

Polishing September off in grand fashion, the Day Students sponsored the first formal dance of the year. To coin an old phrase, "A good time was had by all!"

Much love,

Mer

The "Little Pal Party" was a huge success.

The Y.W.A. gave its campus picnic.

We all enjoyed the Brantleys' "at home."

DEAR DIARY

Irene made the perfect Miss Charming.

Rat Day—dreaded by the Juniors—loved by the Seniors.

We had to have a clown for the Carnival, so—Bet!!

October

Dear Diary,

October—gorgeous fall colors—Kiwanis Outing—they all go together. This year the Kiwanians outdid themselves in being nice to us. They drove us up to Hungry Mother Park where we waded in the mountain water (brrr), played baseball, rowed, hiked, and ate—of course. The sunset over those mountains was truly beautiful. Three cheers for the Kiwanis Club!

"Wear heels and hose to dinner?" "Are you crazy?" "Oh, yes, it's Charm Week." These are snatches from conversations during October 8-12. Our campus certainly was different, Diary, with everyone trying to put her best foot forward. Irene Baeumert, charm personified, was chosen our Miss Charming of 1951. Irene is our exchange student from Germany.

It has been said that the most important thing about college is not the actual learning but the learning how to learn and think. Dr. Willis Howard spoke to us during Religious Emphasis Week. His talks made us think of our religion and what it means to us, college students. You know, Diary, I feel Dr. Howard turned the trends of conversation from funny books to thoughts much more elevating.

The Harvest Carnival was quite successful this year. Our little guests from the Janie Hammit Home really enjoyed themselves. The Y.W.C.A. sponsors the annual carnival and turns the majority of the proceeds over to the Home. For days the girls worked and planned for the big night. Nothing was left out, from the clown and balloons to the fortune teller and spook house. Patsy Smith, one of our cute day students, was elected Harvest Queen, and she did look lovely.

Let me think—yep, I guess that's about all for this month.

Love and other indoor sports,

Mer

Our manners almost, not quite, disappeared at the Kiwanians' picnic.

DEAR DIARY

Day Student Nite was a night of parties.

November

Dear Diary,

November was certainly an eventful month. We learned many things then—how to win, how to lose, and how to do both gracefully.

The hockey games began our class competition for the month, with the seniors winning. Then the great day approached, the day of the Song Contest. This year for the second time in the history of the song contest, the junior class was pronounced victorious. This was truly a month of winners and losers.

November also marked the end of the first grading period when everyone found out where she stood in the way of grades. Resolutions were immediately made concerning those semester grades to come.

Thanksgiving was another highlight of November, with the holiday, the banquet, and the formal recital. Each girl also had an opportunity to give as Thanksgiving baskets were filled and delivered to needy people.

And now, "Hark the V. I. students shout, 15 days 'til we get out!"

Thanksgiving turkey was enjoyed by all.

December

Dear Diary,

December was the month of anticipation. We tried vainly to keep our thoughts from dwelling too much on the holidays ahead, but we finally had to give in to our dreams.

The first Saturday, we celebrated Day Students' Day by inviting them up to spend the night in the dorms. Some of them were intrigued with our lives up here, especially when they saw how we make fudge in coffee pots at one o'clock in the morning.

One night we had a strange house party in the gym about midnight. It seems one of the girls didn't feel "There's no place like home" in her room. It's quite a thrill to awaken in the middle of the night to the melodious fire alarm.

We all dressed up for the first concert of the year.

The Janie Hammit children presented a Thanksgiving program in Chapel.

DEAR DIARY

We got everything ready for Christmas.

The Christmas Dance was given by the Student Council.

Slowly but surely the Christmas spirit descended upon us all. Girls festively decorated doors and rooms while the campus, halls, and gym were made beautiful as we waited for the Christmas Formal. Vespers, chapels, and all programs carried the Yuletide theme. "The Messiah" was presented by the people of Bristol, with some of V. I.'s girls participating. And, finally, the Sunday before we left, the Y.W.C.A. sponsored the Christmas Party for under privileged children, with each girl having the benefit of helping with the gifts. Seeing the children thank Santa Claus for the gifts, and then tear into them, gave each girl a warm feeling of good will. It helped to make the Christmas season real to each of us.

December 15—Home, James!—that is, until the new year. Merry Christmas to all!

The Y.W.C.A. Christmas Party put us in the right spirit for the holidays.

Joan didn't waste a minute, getting home.

DEAR DIARY

When we came back from vacations, our messy rooms and packed suitcases gave us lots to do.

The Y.W.C.A. gave Exam Week teas in the Student Lounge.

January

Dear Diary,

Oh, how we hated to see the third of January roll around. All the joys of Christmas holidays were over and exams were staring us in the face. It took us quite a while to calm down after being out for the holidays. In fact, twenty-three people went on campus the first week.

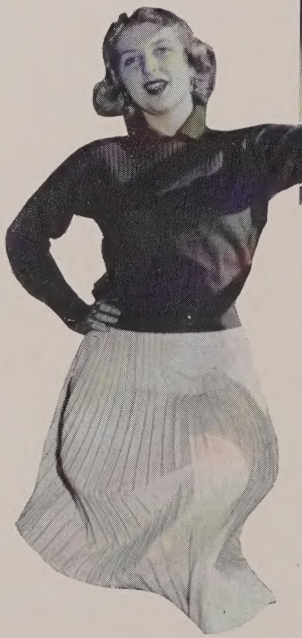
The volley ball tournament was held this month with the seniors emerging victorious. Each class played hard and displayed good sportsmanship.

And then the all-important exams began on the 19th and ended on the 25th. Some studied, some slept, and some played bridge, but grades told the story of each. Exam Week teas and parties at faculty homes were the brightest parts of the week.

Forgetting exams and getting on to something more pleasant, we elected our May Queen, Mase Chapin, and Maid of Honor, Jo Taylor. "Pretty is as pretty does" I've often been told and these girls are pretty in both ways. Other elections were Crownbearer, Jacque Clay, and Trumpeteers, Sara Hester and Barbara Minton, along with the fourteen girls comprising the May Court. This all makes May seem right around the corner.

So long for now,
Me

The Home Ec Department gave a very professional fashion show.



The faculty parties helped our tired brains.

DEAR DIARY

Miss Keezel and Miss Gravlee were members of the Floor-Polishing Crew at the Square Dance.

Miss Woodruff must have made a very funny remark.

February

Dear Diary,

February sprang off to a good start with the Kid Party in the gym. Some of us will never grow old, judging from the costumes and games that delighted us so.

"Swing yo padner to the right—!" were familiar words at the Intermont square dance on the ninth of the month. It really limbered up everyone for a jumpy, happy evening.

The Y.W.C.A. sponsored Peanut Week again this year. For a few days "Will you please give this to ———?" "I wonder who she is," and "What would she like?" were heard all over the campus. On Thursday night at the banquet everyone was amazed to discover the identity of her "shell." With everyone all dressed up, Phi Beta presented a formal recital to provide entertainment for the evening.

Vocational Emphasis Week was a time of enlightenment for all of us. Miss Marguerite Woodruff was the speaker and we all enjoyed her speeches in chapel and informal gatherings in the students' lounge each evening. During this week we each got an idea of the jobs we were best suited for, and the aptitudes we possessed.

One never knows the endless webb of tunnels V. I. possesses, and the amount of soot and dust one's hair and clothes can accumulate until she has burrowed around, participating in the effigy hunt. The poor juniors never realized that one little rag doll could be so well hidden. That night the competitive junior-senior basketball game was held between the two classes, with each class team giving its all.

The Bristol Preaching Mission completes the important events of February.

'Til next time,

Mumsie and students were among the winners at the Kid Party Contest.

Peanut Week Banquet was fun and funny, with everyone discovering their "shells."

The poor Juniors really looked the part of effigy hunters.

DEAR DIARY

We missed last years Faculty Frolics.

The Publications dance was a huge success.

March

Dear Diary,

This month we had violin, voice, and piano recitals—these plus a community concert really presented the cultural aspect of good music to us unlearned ones.

The day of the Shamrock and wearing of the green was observed by a banquet and a talent show by the dining room girls. I'm not sure, but I really think St. Patrick must have been there in spirit.

I might slip in a comment on the fact that the third grading period ended this month. There's the next to last chance to pull up the lagging grades we're all guilty of once in a while.

One thing we seniors missed this year was the Faculty Frolics given, of course, by the members of the faculty. Last year it was an important event of the month and we all really enjoyed it. Next year, you lucky juniors, you too may be able to watch Dr. Brantley as a crooner, or Miss Meade as a flapper of the "roaring twenties."

With the end of the month came the Publications Dance Weekend. This brought a name band to V. I. and the second dance weekend in the history of the school. The traditional figure was formed by the staffs of the two publications on the campus, the Cauldron and the Intermont. The gym was beautifully decorated and, to coin an old phrase, "a good time was had by all."

Margaret Hagood gave a violin recital.

This month was full of important happenings. At the very end of it the junior class gave a banquet for their "big sister" class. We all got very dressed up and went to the Junior-Senior banquet, where there was plenty of good food and entertainment by the talented members of the Junior Class. And let me tell you, that means a lot of talent.

Gee, Diary, only two more months to go!

Love,
Mer

DEAR DIARY

We met all sorts of new girls on Houseparty week-end.

Some of the children who came to the Easter Egg Hunt.

April

Dear Diary,

Similar to Christmas-time, we started "doing" for Easter a little early. April fifth the Y.W.A. sponsored an Easter egg hunt for the Goodwill Center children. On the next day was held Palm Sunday vespers program.

April 9—Easter holidays! Once again we students scattered to all points, with some traveling north; some south, east, and west; but all had a big time. Oh yes, and all returned April 16!

The weekend house party for prospective students was a highlight of that week. Walking down the halls and across the campus, one could hear amazing sales talks—"V. I. is the best in its line," etc. Music auditions for scholarships were also held then with many of the girls deciding to make V. I. their choice for the first two years of college, and making plans for the coming school year. Oh dear, "the coming school year" makes us seniors feel left out already.

During the reunion weekend we enjoyed introducing new girls to the old girls we had talked about so much all through the year. We really liked catching up on all the news of our friends too.

Love ya'
Me

Tally's recital was a huge success.

Clearing the stage for the Drama Recital.

DEAR DIARY

Cramming for exams was the only unpleasant part of this month.

The High School really had fun on "their day."

The May Court presented a lovely picture.

Maggie crowned the queen, Mase, while Jo stood in attendance.

May

Dear Diary,

I hate to write you about this month because—well, because this is a month with a strange air of finality. Final banquets, final exams, final everything is catching up with us all—the Seniors at least.

The end of the school term was just around the corner when May made its appearance. We Seniors thought we would be happy to see the month arrive, but we're feeling kinda funny now that it is here. But we'll just have fun at graduation and think about returning for reunion next year. It's always fun to come back and renew old friendships anyway.

At the first of the month the INTERMONT was presented at the Annual banquet and we found out who had won the various honors associated with the yearbook. Features, Torchbearers, special awards—everything was announced to us. But the special thing was the Dedication to Mr. Snodgrass. We were all so glad to hear that.

Then the High School had its day. They had one solid day when they could do just about everything. They wore jeans to classes but did they study?—I should say not—they had parties in every class and ate and did everything but look at books. That certainly was one time when we college kids envied the High School girls.

Love 'n stuff,

Me

DEAR DIARY

May

Dear Diary,

Please don't let me shock you—writing twice in one month, but so much has happened that I just had to tell you, Diary, about it all.

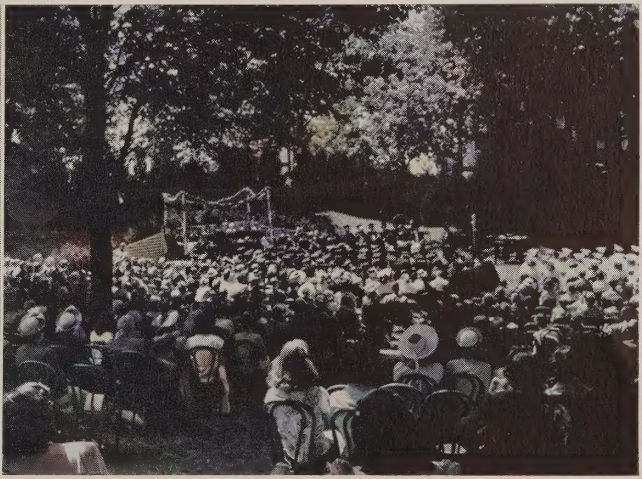
End of the year festivities began with the Horse Show, May 22. That night Dr. Brantley stood at the chapel steps and with his torch, personifying learning, lit the torches of each senior for the Torchlight ceremony. The senior class of the high school were the honor guards in white who formed an arch for the college seniors to pass through on their way down the drive to the lower campus. Torchlight is a beautiful, impressive, and sad ceremony, and when it was over there weren't very many dry eyes on the campus.

Torchlight was a sad but beautiful sight.

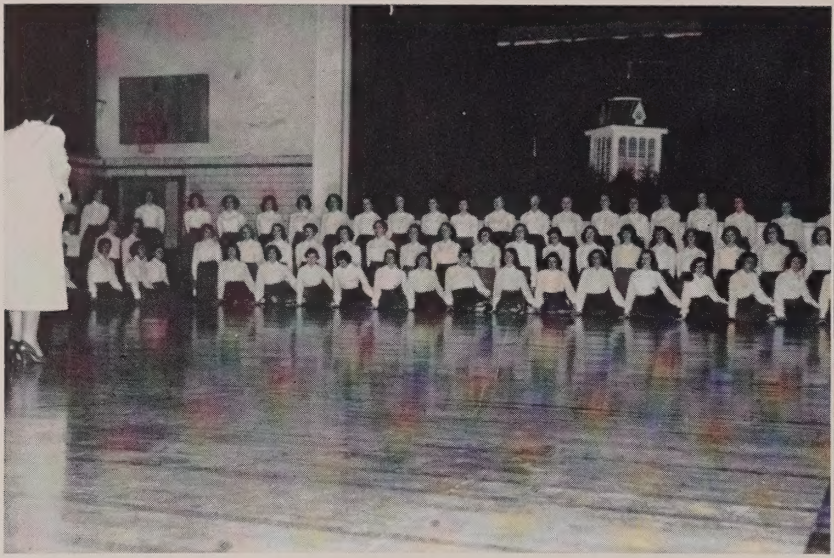
On May Day, Mase, the Queen, Jo, her Maid of Honor, and the court looked lovely, as they watched the dance classes entertain with their presentation of a beautiful story told by dance. The Graduation play given by the drama department, and the Baccalaureate Sunday were the last events before the all-important day of graduation! Commencement Day was, as usual, a day of rejoicing and sorrow. Each of us has reached a milestone along the highway of education, and these milestones are usually marked by events such as these. We all leave, cherishing friendships and memories and hoping to return to these familiar halls some day.

So long for now,
MER

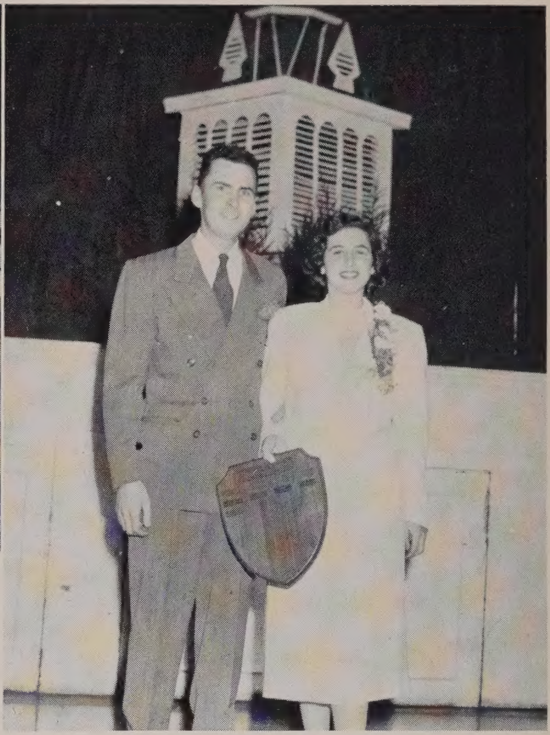
On Baccalaureate Sunday, we all went to church wearing our traditional graduation robes.



Graduation ceremony was held in the natural amphitheater on front campus.



The Junior Class presented its songs from this formation.



Diana Colombo and Dr. Turner, the Junior Class Sponsor.

SONG CONTEST was THE EVENT!

In November, we all were aware that something special was going to happen right away. We had worked and worked for this day and finally it arrived—Song Contest Day! Only those who participate can truly know and feel the magic of those words, SONG CONTEST! Only they can work earnestly for the time to come, can feel the thrill of awe on that first step into the gym, can anxiously await Mr. Snodgrass' presentation of the coveted plaque. This year, the Juniors were the winners of that magical plaque. This was the second time in the history of the Song Contest that the Juniors had won. Truly, it was a month of winners and losers.

The Senior Class and Betty Shaw, the song leader, sang with uplifted hearts.

The High School Class had the most original uniform of all three classes.

Miss Dorothy Fojt
Editor-in-Chief, "The Intermont"
Virginia Intermont College
Bristol, Virginia

Dear Miss Fojt:

It has been a great pleasure to select the seven beauties for the feature section of your yearbook, "Intermont". The photographs of the candidates, which you submitted, were all so attractive that I found it difficult to make a decision. It was also difficult to make my selection without seeing and talking to each contestant.

The winners, Mase Chapin, Jane Reggs, Jean Crump, Katherine McCraskey, Jo Ann Mesch, Betty Jane Craft and Joan Cody, were selected on the basis of personality, character, and intelligence, as well as for natural beauty. My choice was influenced, of course, by my great interest in and admiration for the Natural Girl.

If the contestants are ever in New York, it would be a pleasure to meet them. With best wishes to the contestants, to the staff of the "Intermont" and to the students of Virginia Intermont College, I am

Sincerely yours,

MAY

The May Court of 1952 was selected from girls who characterize dignity, beauty, poise, and charm, characteristics which every student at Virginia Intermont seeks for in the girls of this Court.

COURT

Each of these girls represents the loveliness of May as well as the respect of Virginia Intermont for beauty in both appearance and deed.

TORCHBEARERS

Torchbearers are the twelve girls chosen by their classmates as those who have shown character, friendliness, humility, and class and school spirit. Representing our school, they are the leaders who carried the torches of responsibility here and who will continue to symbolize the true light of Virginia Intermont wherever they go.

Our Dads

Our Dads are the ones who have made possible our college days, and have helped us all by contributing to our annual, the INTERMONT. In loving remembrance and appreciation of this, we dedicate this page to them, as a reminder of their interest in and love for all of us.

SENIOR CLASS SPONSOR

MR. HAROLD E. AYERS

Last of all we present our senior class sponsor—the man who has led the senior class through their triumphs and defeats. Each event of the year has proved to us again the friendliness, wisdom, and sense of fair play that this man possesses. He is truly the one man who could have helped all the seniors to an unforgettable and wonderful last year at V. I. He is our own friend and confidant—Mr. Harold E. Ayers.

In Memoriam

WILLIAM ELLIS JONES

"Lives of great men all remind us
We can make our lives sublime,
And, departing, leave behind us
Footprints on the sands of time."

A PSALM OF LIFE
HENRY WADSWORTH LONGFELLOW

These beautiful words of Longfellow's are a fitting dedication to our own Mr. Jones. His greatness was so profound that even the most eloquent of persons would find himself at a loss for words with which to express it. The true mark of greatness in a man is not how the world was affected by his living, but how it was affected by his dying. Many will miss Mr. Jones, for he was so great in so many ways that he had a little bit of himself to give to everyone.

He was a Humanitarian of the supreme degree. People — their personalities, problems, ambitions, and hopes — were Mr. Jones' main interest in life. No undertaking was too great, nor any student's problem too trivial to merit his entire attention and earnest assistance. He sowed advice and encouragement and he reaped a harvest of love from all who knew him.

He was our guiding light not only across "the boards" of the Little Theatre, but also across the rough, uneven, boards of the stage of life. Now he is gone, and our steps may falter, but from the little niche reserved in our hearts for Mr. Jones a light will come to guide us.

Lest We Forget

This book of memories would never be complete without the special mention of several people we never want to forget.

To all the Housemothers—for their help and sympathy,

To Mr. Roberts—who has helped us too many ways to even mention,

To Mrs. Mansfield and her staff—who have kept our school and buildings the way we like to see them,

To Mrs. Harper—whose Tea Hole really is a wonderful necessity,

To Walter, V.I.'s own poet-philosopher—for after all, "An army travels on its stomach,"

To all these people we extend our most sincere and wholehearted "Thanks!"

BUNTING'S FOR DRUGS

Bunting's touches the life of Virginia Intermont as closely as any business in Bristol. It is a great satisfaction to us to know that our Pharmaceutical Department has cooperated with the College Infirmary for many years in protecting the health of V.I. students. All of your films from the bookstore are finished in our Photographic Department, and our Soda Fountain and Toilet Department have always catered to Bristol students. We appreciate your patronage.
